Moving into Senior Housing: Adapting the Old,
Embracing the New

Thursday, May 10, 2018

Cedar Creek

2600 Cedar Creek Ln.

Onalaska, WI 54650

8:30 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. - Coffee, Bagels, and Muffins

9:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. - Judy Gull, President/LARA will moderate a panel of experts (see below) that will provide tools & resources for REALTORS® when working with elders as they transition into Senior Housing.

Cheryl Neubauer - Supervisor - Adult Protective Services (APS)

Adult Protective Services is a program that helps address the safety of La Crosse County's vulnerable residents when there may be a situation involving abuse, neglect or financial exploitation. Its function is to address issues of potential abuse or neglect for elders and adults-at-risk in circumstances where the person may not be able to look out for their own safety due to their health condition or disability.

Heidi Eglash - Attorney

Heidi is an attorney and shareholder at the law firm of Johns, Flaherty & Collins, SC in La Crosse. She will discuss the legal planning aspects associated with seniors moving to independent living, assisted living, and skilled nursing communities.

Peggy Herbeck - Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) of La Crosse County

ADRCs offer the general public a single source of information and assistance on issues affecting elders and people with disabilities regardless of their income. They are a great resource for accurate, unbiased information. They can provide information about all of the options available and help the person to select the best solution to meet long term care needs.

Tina Antony - Outreach and Housing Coordinator for Springbrook Community of Onalaska

Tina has helped numerous families navigate the muddy waters of trying to move their aging parents out of their long-term homes and into a safer, more comfortable living situation. She will share community resources that have been helpful in assisting senior citizens and their family members make the relocation to more appropriate housing environments
