AHWD Certification Course
May 9, 2017 | 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
WRA Madison Headquarters (host site)
4801 Forest Run Road | Madison, WI 53704

Instructor: Eric Kodner, AHWD
Since 2008, Kodner has taught real estate courses in technology, fair housing, ethics and agency in both Minnesota and Wisconsin. Kodner is the broker and owner of Madeline Island Realty in LaPointe, Wis., and Wayzata Lakes Realty in Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minn.

AHWD certification course
The At Home With Diversity (AHWD) educational experience is designed to present a picture of the changing face of the industry. REALTORS® who adapt to increasing cultural diversity and wisely plan to meet the needs of diverse clients gain a competitive edge and expand opportunities.

The one-day AHWD certification course will give you the ability to:
- Access and understand attributes of diversity in local markets and associated impacts on the real estate industry.
- Build a business plan to successfully service all client profiles.
- Understand basic competencies to earn the confidence of potential buyers and sellers, regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, gender, handicaps, familial status or national origin.

AHWD certification benefits
While the AHWD teaches you how to transact business in culturally competent ways, the AHWD certification conveys to clients that you are a dynamic real estate professional with expertise that transcends cultural barriers.

REALTORS® who adapt to increasing cultural diversity in the market and plan to meet the needs of diverse clients gain a competitive edge. According to the National Association of REALTORS®, REALTORS® with designations and certifications are more likely to out-earn REALTORS® without such credentials, making the AHWD certification more valuable than ever.
